Disclaimer

Disclaimer regarding illegal ballots versus illegal voters: While this report identifies many illegally cast ballots and the names of ineligible voters in whose name those ballots were cast, it does not allege that those persons necessarily cast the illegal ballots. Determining who cast a ballot, legal or otherwise, particularly as a private, non-governmental organization, proves nearly an impossible feat.

Disclaimer regarding redaction of voter information and research: The public version of this report has redacted appendixes that include voter data and supplemental research. The full version, available to government and law enforcement officials and, on a limited basis, to select individuals and members of the media, has no such redactions.

Summary

This brief is a collection of county clerk responses in relation to the three that we published for Arizona, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin. One of these was missed in the email records in error as we had Maricopa but had misfiled, whereas the rest are late and new responses. At least one response was due to pressure from the reports made public as evidenced by the county clerk in York, PA. Some clerks may simply be overburdened with work, however, and the slow response time is indicative of their workloads. In any case we thank those clerks for responding, and we ask the public to view the voter rolls and ask those county clerks that have not yet responded to do so and to clean their rolls of questionable voters based on the information we provided.

Hello Ian,

I can only speak for Maricopa County and our processes. We are not a law enforcement agency – we have no authority to conduct these investigations. If an investigation needs to be conducted, it must be done by a law enforcement agency. If and when an investigation is opened, we cooperate fully with law enforcement.

Additionally, removing someone from the voter rolls is strictly regulated under federal and state law. We work closely with other government offices and agencies to ensure these are handled appropriately and through the proper channels.

Respectfully,
Melissa Davis

Hi Melissa,

I was under the impression that the county clerks would handle this issue as I have been in contact with all other 14 counties in Arizona and they have looked into these cases. They have checked if these are mistakes, or illegal registrations, or grandfathered, etc.

The county DA has been looped in if/when there does seem to be something suspect, but I wanted to follow protocol. I was hoping that these would be researched, investigated and verified on your end prior to submitting to the Maricopa County Attorney's office, as others have done.

Again, I can submit property records, google map data, website data, etc. to assist with the research in the voter register clerk's office as I figured you do to check on all voters.

Please advise.

Ian Camacho

Thank you for your email. This is in response to this email and your second email with 49 individuals. The Maricopa County Recorder's Office is not a law enforcement agency and therefore cannot investigate these individuals. We are an administrative office only.

Any investigations must be conducted by a law enforcement agency such as the Maricopa County Attorney's Office or the Arizona Attorney General's Office. You can find more information here: <https://www.azag.gov/complaints/election>.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Dear Maricopa County Elections Division,

I wanted to follow up on my email from 3 months ago in regards to these potentially illegal voter registrations/votes in your county.

Did you have any word back from the County Attorney's office, or any updates on these cases, that you can share?

I'm happy to send additional information that we have (property records, Google Maps, USPS/UPS/storage websites, etc) for the addresses of those we flagged who appear to be at USPS, UPS & storage units if you need additional information to expedite your research.

Thank you!

Hello Mr. Camacho,

The Pima County Election's Department forwarded me an email you sent on May 3, 2022, regarding eight voters that have permanently moved from Pima County. Our office is continually managing the voter rolls of Pima County and we receive information from a variety of sources, including the National Change of Address program, to manage the accuracy of our voter roll.

Our office does not conduct criminal investigations regarding voter registration or voter participation. The appropriate agency's to request further investigation into election related misconduct are the Pima County Attorney's Office or the Arizona Attorney General's Office.

Should you have any additional questions regarding the voter registration process, early voting, or other operations related to the Recorder's Office please feel free to contact me. Thank you and have a good rest of your day.

Mr. Camacho

As Election Director for Centre County, I did receive your email dated 5/12/22. At that point, the priorities of Election left pressing matters that I needed to address. Additionally, the mandatory recount then exhausted many resources of this office. However, I had a meeting previously scheduled with the County Administrator and Solicitor to discuss the content of your first email. Please know that Centre County will be looking into these voters. Some of the voters have already been cancelled. Some voters may have careers that require anonymity which afford for the way they are registered or they are claiming indigent which cannot be questioned by this office. I will follow up with you at a future date with the findings. However, this office is not an investigative agency and has limited capabilities. I will be in touch.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Davidson, Ms. Lechman, and Ms. Stover,

I am writing to follow up with you in regards to these 23 voters sent your way last month who appear to be illegally registered at and who seem to have voted from P.O. Boxes at the USPS and UPS Store as their residential addresses.

While you may have already removed these voters from your rolls, if you missed them then we are notifying you as these registrations could suggest an intent to hide the nature of their addresses by marking them as a unit, suite, or apartment, or it could simply be a clerical error, or it could be something else like a grandfather clause.

To be clear, these are not the voters' listed mailing addresses, but their listed residential addresses. Many voters we found either had no mailing address or the residential address was the same as the mailing address, which was linked to a nonresidential location - meaning transposition or clerical error would not be possible or explain the reasoning.

We request an investigation into these 23 individuals who appear to have registered and voted from what appear to be P.O. Boxes. If these are indeed fraudulent registrations, we would like at minimum to have the voter rolls cleaned, but ideally be prosecuted if any of those voters intentionally deceived the county registrars and state of Pennsylvania.

Please keep us posted of the results of the investigation into these voters, thank you!

Kind Regards,
Ian Camacho

Mr. Camacho,

[REDACTED] is currently registered under a nonresidential address. Unfortunately, when registering a voter and putting their address in the SURE system, the system does not verify if the address is a residential or nonresidential address. We process an application, and it puts the voter in the precinct SURE and GIS assign the address too. This is also what happened with [REDACTED]

Our Chairman of the Election Board will be reaching out to the Department of State in regards to this system issue, with hope that this issue can be resolved for future Voter Registrations. In the meantime, myself and my staff will be personally checking the residential address the voter provides on their new voter registration application to be sure it is a residential address.

As for [REDACTED] we cannot cancel a voter's registration until we have something in writing from the voter themselves saying they have moved. Even if a family member, neighbor, friend, etc notifies us that a voter has moved, we cannot legally remove the voter from the rolls until we have written documentation signed by the voter themselves saying that they have moved and no longer reside at that address. Once I receive the cancellation form back from [REDACTED] he will be removed from the voter rolls.

Please let me know if you have any more questions.

Thanks,

Thank you Ms. McFarland,

For [REDACTED] that makes sense but what about the other 2? Were those not illegal registrations in the first place? How did these things happen?

If [REDACTED] does not respond, can you not remove [REDACTED] despite confirming he lives in NC?

I'm not meaning to be accusatory, I am more curious how this happened as the situation with [REDACTED] makes sense but the other 2 do not.

Good morning Mr. Camacho,

I am responding in regards to the 3 voters you have inquired about, that have nonresidential addresses.

[REDACTED]

On Wednesday, June 22nd, I reached out by telephone. I spoke with [REDACTED] and he now resides in North Carolina. I sent [REDACTED] a cancel voter registration form in the mail, and once he returns it to our office, he will be removed from the SURE system.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] does not have a phone number in our system to be contacted. On June 27th, I sent [REDACTED] a new voter registration in the mail, with a letter explaining he must be registered at his residential address in order to vote. Once the voter registration form is returned, we will process it, and [REDACTED] will be registered at his current residential address.

[REDACTED]

On Wednesday, June 22nd, I reached out by telephone. [REDACTED] confirms his residential address is 6304 US Hwy 6. I forwarded the address to our GIS Manager, and his response is below.

"We checked into this address, in actuality, James Smith is currently assigned 6304 US Highway 6 and Dollar General was assigned 6252 US Highway 6 back in December 2017.

However, Dollar General IS using 6304 US Highway 6 (as per their website). Because the US Post Office connects the old address to the new address for 1 year during an address change, we unfortunately will have to change both Dollar General & [REDACTED]

With that being said, [REDACTED] will be assigned a new residential address, and once a new voter registration form is completed, his address will be updated in the SURE system.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Several either had no mailing address or were linked to a P.O. Box - meaning transposition or clerical error would not be possible or explain the reasons.

This is not permitted according to the registration form which reads "Address (not P.O. Box)"

https://www.vote.pa.gov/Resources/Documents/Voter_Registration_Application_English.pdf

We also reviewed the relevant state voter registration laws to confirm that these voters were not qualified to vote from a P.O. Box under any lawful exemptions before making our determination.

Title 25 [Elections], Chapter 13 [Voter Registration], Subchapter A [Qualifications], Section 1302 [Residence of electors], subsection (B)(1) makes this explicitly clear that one cannot vote using a post office box (or similar like a UPS, FedEx, etc.):

(b) Rules for determination. -- The following apply:

Dear Mr. Camacho and Mr. Enright,

The County of York previously received a report of the same list of voters which Look Ahead America forwarded to your attention.

Please note, the County of York and the Elections and Voter Registration Office take election security very seriously. The County and Office routinely receive, review, and investigate allegations of voting irregularities, such as improper or incomplete voter registrations, and the use of business addresses or post office boxes as residential addresses. With one exception, the individuals included on the list you forwarded to our attention had already been reviewed by the County prior to June 16, 2022.

The County of York does not comment on the status of pending or closed investigations.

As a general note of information, any individual that is believed to be involved in intentional election or voter fraud will be referred to the York County District Attorney's Office. If that occurs, the York County District Attorney's Office will determine if sufficient evidence to support a prosecution exists. If an individual is prosecuted for voting or election fraud, certain information about their case will become a matter of public record when criminal charges are filed.

Therefore, please understand that going forward the County of York will not comment on the status of the receipt or review of any specific individuals or of any lists provided by you or others. However, if the District Attorney's Office files charges against any individual, those charges would then become a matter of public record.

Dear Ms. Berger,

I am following up on my email from a month ago regarding a voter in your municipality who appears to have voted as "indefinitely confined" and yet we have evidence that this voter was not confined indefinitely to their residence. Were you able to investigate this case and to make a determination?

We realize that as of August 2021 an audit was performed in most municipalities to update these voters' statuses, however, we are bringing this to your attention so that this voter does not remain grandfathered or a "legacy" indefinitely confined case. Based on the information we have they were not even eligible in 2020 for indefinitely confined status.

I've attached the case again for your review. We can provide information for this voter if you need additional research on this voter's 2020 status and evidence that they were indeed not indefinitely confined. Please advise, thank you!

Kind Regards,
Ian Camacho

Dear Ms. Berger,

We are submitting a voter in your municipality and county that voted in the 2020 General Election as an indefinitely confined voter. We realize that as of August 2021 an audit was performed in most municipalities to update these voters' statuses, however, we are bringing this to your attention so that this voter does not remain grandfathered or a "legacy" indefinitely confined case. Details about the definition of Indefinitely Confined can be found in Wis. Stat. § 6.86(2)

(a) <https://docs.legis.wisconsin.gov/statutes/statutes/6/iv/86/2/a>

"An elector who is indefinitely confined because of age, physical illness or infirmity or is disabled for an indefinite period may by signing a statement to that effect require that an absentee ballot be sent to the elector automatically for every election. The application form and instructions shall be prescribed by the commission, and furnished upon request to any elector by each municipality. The envelope containing the absentee ballot shall be clearly marked as not forwardable. If any elector is no longer indefinitely confined, the elector shall so notify the municipal clerk."

1,093% more Indefinitely Confined statuses were granted than in 2016, with 169,282 new applications. COVID-19 was not a qualification.

Additionally, the Wisconsin Supreme Court ruled that Wisconsin elections were wrong to assert that voters could claim the status of "indefinitely confined" because of COVID-19. Wisconsin's statutory law states that a person can only classify as indefinitely confined based on his/her age, his/her physical illness (NOT the illness of someone else), or his/her infirmity.

The Court did note that a determination must be made in every single case before throwing out a ballot. Instead, the Court deemed that indefinitely confined ballots must be looked at, and prosecuted, on a case-by-case basis: <https://www.wicourts.gov/sc/opinion/DisplayDocument.pdf?content=pdf&segNo=315283>

Our Research Group used a variety of public and semi-publicly available tools to find supplemental evidence of one's residential status.
