Look Ahead Calls for Jake Lang to be Granted Bail

Washington, DC –Today, Look Ahead America’s Executive Director Matt Braynard released the following statement:

Jake Lang and his family have suffered for far too long. In a country where school shooters, would-be political assassins, and those who attempt terrorist attacks on our organization’s events are released on bail within forty-eight hours, it’s unconscionable that Jake Lang remains locked up in solitary confinement where he’s been tortured by prison guards and denied basic human rights.

We call on the judge to grant him bail which is long overdue. Jake has been denied his constitutional right to a speedy trial as the government denies access to evidence and legal counsel, and Jake is no risk to anyone in any way that would justify his pre-trial detention.

We join patriots everywhere demanding his release and for the government to grant him and the others who remain in detention the reasonable bail they deserve.
