Look Ahead America Advances Election Integrity Legislation in North Carolina

Washington, D.C. – Look Ahead America (LAA) Community Organizer Erin LeCroy has led efforts to educate North Carolina legislators on Senate Bill 747 which passed the State Senate on Monday. The legislation vastly improves election integrity in North Carolina and advances many of LAA’s election integrity objectives.

Matt Braynard, Executive Director of Look Ahead America, said:

This is one of the best single bills in the country to help ensure elections are clean and fair and we encourage North Carolina to pass it into law post-haste.

From requiring greater mail-in ballot security to voter list hygiene to outlawing Zuckerbucks to opening the door to serious prosecution of voter fraud, this legislation accomplishes a lot.

And we’re also proud of the role our organization played in advancing the legislation under the local leadership of Erin LeCroy. She has demonstrated the real power of community organizing.
