Look Ahead America Praises President Trump for Broad J6 Pardons and Commutations, Calls for Accountability, Restitution, and National Memorial and Day of Remembrance

Washington, D.C. – Today, Look Ahead America’s Executive Director Matt Braynard made the following statement:

By broadly pardoning, commuting, and dropping charges against those politically persecuted for their involvement in the January 6th First Amendment Exercise, President Trump has ensured that our long national nightmare is over, and for none more so than the victims and their families.

From firing grenades into a peaceful and lawfully assembled crowd, to violent early morning raids at the homes of unarmed civilians while aiming assault weapons at their families, to lying to corrupt DC judges and semi-literate, anti-American DC juries, to physical and mental abuse in the gulags, to the deprivation of the ability to earn a living and making families financially destitute, to the cold-blooded murder of Ashli Babbitt—the Biden Regime, the F.B.I., the Department of Justice, the Capitol Police, and the mainstream media have committed a grave crime against patriotic Americans and caused great harm to our nation.

But thanks to President Trump’s brave actions last night, that wound can begin to heal, and we thank him for it.

What’s needed next is for the new Department of Justice and Congressional leadership to conduct investigations, hold the criminals who perpetrated this injustice accountable, and provide restitution to the victims.

But that is not enough: we believe this assault on Americans must never be forgotten and are calling for the federal government to establish a national memorial and to designate a national holiday naming January 6th “Patriot Day.”

Look Ahead America has been a leading voice in the #JusticeforJ6 movement, organizing over 70 rallies across the country, documenting presidential candidates’ positions on the issue, producing the Political Prisoner Podcast to give victims a platform to share their stories, and creating the J6 Database, the only comprehensive resource on those politically prosecuted. Additionally, LAA launched Jobs for J6 to help those who lost employment secure new opportunities to support their families.
